Mrs. Jane F. Gammon.
One of the oldest inhabitants of our town, Mrs. Jane Frost Gammon, widow of Seth Gammon, passed "beyond the river" Sept. 21, aged 88 years. She was the mother of fourteen children, three dying quite young. Nine settled within a few miles of the old home where they were all born. These are Frank Gammon, Charles Gammon, Mrs. Martha Flood, Mrs. Hannah Hill and Mrs. Ida Hall. Elbridge Gammon and his sister, Lizzie Gammon have always lived at the old home. Mrs. Mary Everett lives in Oxford and Mrs. Etta Brackett lived in Harrison. Mrs. Brackett and Mrs. Hall have been dead several years.
Aunt Jane has enjoyed many pleasant years in her home with her son Elbridge and his wife who did everything in their power to make their mother comfortable and happy.
She has been almost helpless for the last three years but was very patient through all her suffering. She needed constant attention and no one ever had more willing, tender, loving care than Lizzie, the youngest daughter, gave her mother.
Mrs. Gammon left four daughters, five sons, fourteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren and many, many friends to remember that their loss is her gain.

Company D's Shooters.
On the rifle range at Portland, Saturday, will be a shooting between teams of five men from each company of the Maine National Guard, the signal corps and a private gun club, for several prizes.
Company D will be represented by:
Capt. John W. Nash.
Lieut. Frank A. Hayden.
Sergeant J. C. Sullivan.
Corp. W. F. Marston.
Priv. George Tubbs.
Harry A. Packard will accompany the team as marker. Some of the men will enter the individual matches, and Maj. B. F. Bradbury will be on the staff team at revolver match.

Mrs. Adna Keene attended the meeting of Rebekahs in Portland, Monday.
E. W. Dyer expects to open his billiard and pool room next Saturday.
E. R. Kneeland is spending some time canvassing in northern Vermont.
Hon. A. S. Kimball was reelected in Portland on Wednesday as the Grand Representative from the Grand Encampment of Maine for the next two years.
Mrs. J. W. Carter of Haverhill, Mass., is visiting her brother, Simeon Harrison.
Mrs. Jennie Howe called on her cousins, Mr. Alfred A. Everett and wife last Tuesday.
One dozen Holmes men sent to any address on receipt of ten cents. Address this office.
Will Seger went to Boston on the excursion Monday. His father went with him.
Elder James Albert Libby of West Poland will preach at G. A. R. Hall, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Andrew Hill has been making extensive alterations and repairs to his house he recently bought at the corner of Beal and Fern streets, and is having the stand painted white.
S. J. Record has placed a sign on his blacksmith shop. Jesse Edwards, who ran the Bassett shop a year ago and has since been at Welchville and Oxford, works for him.
At a home on one of the neat shorter streets at the upper end of the village, the line fence is used as a depository for potato tops, weeds and similar collateral. Not very neat!
Ernest Hutchins is in Exeter, N. H., this week, packing his goods preparatory to going here. He has rented the house at the Electric Light Co., on Marston street.
The Grand Trunk section crew this week have rebuilt the crossing on Beal street of the shoe factory siding. Several rails have been replaced with heavier ones, new ties laid, the outer rails on the curve raised and much new ballast put in. The crossing is entirely new planked in. The crossing is to be given by Norway Concert Band at the Opera House, Tuesday evening, Nov. 10th. There will be special talent secured for the occasion, and the band are putting their best efforts into the program. The program will be announced later.
David H. Lebrooke and wife of North Waterford are to spend the winter at Livermore Falls. David sold his teaming business to Charles Coffin some months ago. He will be night watchman at the round house of the Chisholm Branch railroad. They have a daughter, Mrs. Effie Madison, who lives at Livermore Falls, and they expect to live with her this winter.
Mrs. Isaac Tucker of West Buckfield shows us a sample of their potato crop. From a half acre 80 bushels were harvested. Some of them weighed 2 and 2½ pounds each. The sample we have 2½ pounds plump 2 pounds. Mrs. Tucker says they are a splendid table potato but have to be steamed instead of boiled as by the latter process they break "all to pieces." They are called the "million dollar potato" and have been raised by them for several years.
Camp Cinnamon members and friends are having their annual fox hunt. At this writing 3 foxes and one 40 pound coon have been captured. P. H. Cummings, S. H. Walcott, A. S. Record, M. They have three dogs, which keep them busy.

THE NORWAY ADVERTISER
(OXFORD COUNTY, ME.)
NUMBER 43. OCTOBER 23, 1903, NORWAY AND SOUTH PARIS, MAINE. VOLUME XXXIV.

Supreme Judicial Court.
October Term, 1903.
There was a good attendance at the court temperance meeting, Wednesday evening, J. Hastings Bean acted as chairman of the meeting and prayer was offered by Rev. A. W. Pottle. The speakers were:
Chas. R. Barnes, esq., Norway.
Rev. H. S. Pinkham, South Paris.
Rev. E. S. Cotton, Norway.
Atton. C. Wheeler, South Paris.
J. H. Stevenson, Rumford Falls.
Albert D. Park, South Paris.
Elmer B. Austin, Buckfield.
Chas. F. Whitman, Norway.
Rev. A. W. Pottle, South Paris.
Re submission as a measure to promote either temperance or intemperance found no favor with the speakers who expressed themselves as strongly opposed to it.
There was a large attendance at the trial of York vs. Magalloway Plantation, which began Thursday morning and went to the jury at 11 o'clock, Saturday forenoon. The suit was for $2,000. Mrs. Hall, Elbridge Gammon and his sister, Lizzie Gammon have always lived at the old home. Mrs. Mary Everett lives in Oxford and Mrs. Etta Brackett lived in Harrison. Mrs. Brackett and Mrs. Hall have been dead several years.

Wednesday afternoon were placed on trial the cases of James B. Stevenson, trustee, against Miliken Tomlinson Co., Twitchell, Wheeler and Co., J. H. Fletcher and others. Wing & Voter, merchants at Rumford Falls, paid to these firms sums on account, and shortly afterward went into insolvency. Suit is brought to recover the money on the ground that the firms was insolvent.
One trespass case of A. D. Andrews, guardian, against Perley A. Crawford was settled by payment of $25 and costs, and the second case between the same ones is entered neither party.
To-day, Thursday, will be tried the Rovinsky cases against the Fire Insurance Company and the Northern Assurance Company of Philadelphia County, rising from the refusal of the companies to pay the insurance on Rovinsky's property destroyed by fire at Rumford Falls. It will be remembered that Rovinsky was held on a charge of burning his house. The church was nearly destroyed by an indictment last March.

Weary and worn out all the time. Back weak and lame and aching. Headache, Nervous, Restless, Excitable. The Kidneys are sick.

Doan's Kidney Pills

cure every symptom of Kidney Ills, from common backache to complicated urinary disorders.

Mrs. Mark Hyde, of 45 Thornley street, Portland, Me., writes: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used by both my husband and myself, and the relief obtained in every case was very satisfactory. My husband was bothered on and on for a long time with pain across his back, which at times became very severe. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, and procured a box from W. L. Wood's drug store. He used them, and in a very short time was rid of the backache. I always keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand, and would not be without them."

A Trip Through Oxford County.

A. H. Witham and wife returned, Friday night, from a ten days' visit to Lovell, Mason, West Bethel, Bethel, Norway, West Paris and Norway. At Lovell they visited J. L. Parker and family and spent a very enjoyable season. They drove through North Waterford while the people were gathering for their fair, called on Mr. Tyler and wife. Mr. Tyler called on his bed nearly two years. They drove by their old home, called on S. O. Grover's family and Ernest Morrill, thence to West Bethel, calling on their old friend, Daniel Morrill, also at Leon Tyler's and on J. E. Pike, and then to Newry to his daughter's, Mrs. Walter A. Powers, where they tarried till Tuesday forenoon.

While there they went up Bear river, calling on Mrs. Nathan Baker and family and Mrs. Solomon Wither. At Willard B. Wright's they tarried to dinner, then made a call on Horatio Wright. At Bethel they visited her brother, Charles Barrett, and sister, Mrs. Nathan Bean, and made short calls on E. B. Goddard, Fritz Tyler and family, and that live and stirring man, Calvin Eisebe, also Albert Grover.

At West Paris they stopped Tuesday night with Rev. D. F. Nelson. Wednesday morning they called on their old friend, G. W. Bryant, who at high noon gave his daughter away in marriage to Geo. Robertson, also called on Mrs. Mary Emery, Dr. O. K. Yates, Mrs. Susan Claffin. Then to North Paris, where they stopped at Abner Benson's, calling on the widow of Rev. Hiram Chase and on that devout and Godly woman, Miss A. H. Minard, where pleasant and profitable seasons were enjoyed.

Then to Norway, where they visited her sister, Mrs. Rowena Swan, and niece, Mrs. Linnie Bartlett, and children till Friday, when they started for home, stopping at Bridgton at his niece's, Mrs. Thomas Easton's, for dinner and rest, arriving home at 4 p. m.

During this journey the scenery was the richest and most gorgeous they ever saw. Nature was clothed in its most beautiful variegated dress, giving great pleasure to every lover of nature.

Bears and deer are very plenty and many have been shot and caught at Newry and Bethel.

Jonathan Pendexter of Cornish has been the guest the past week of Wm. F. Caldwell and family and P. J. Billings and family.

Neither side scored in a foot ball game between Hebron Academy and Portland Naval Reserves at Portland, Saturday afternoon. Hebron always has a good team and this year is no exception to the rule. She has been coached by Lafayette of Bowdoin and the men from the academy know foot ball and play a fast, scrappy and clean game. In weight they were about a match for the Naval Reserves with the odds a little in favor of the Portland boys perhaps but the little they might have had in weight was amply made up by the Hebron team in its longer experience and better team work. The grounds were wet and muddy.

Norway Natural History Experts

The Boston Sunday Herald of Oct. 18, devotes one page of the Magazine to illustrations and a brief account of the work of boys' science clubs of Norway which are studying natural history under direction of George Robley Howe. These clubs are three in number, The Sidney I. Smith Society of Science, The Society for Scientific Research and The Boys' Natural History Club. In the Advertiser of April 24, was published the officers and specialists of the two latter named and younger clubs.

The illustrations are twenty in number and are group pictures of the three classes, scenes on the march and pearl fishing, photographs at work of president Robley H. Howe, secretary Don S. Smith, Clark C. True, Harold A. Anderson, Carl L. Harmon, Winfield A. Kimball, Fredland J. Morrison and Vivian M. Akers of the senior class, president George C. Leavitt of the middle class and president Philip Richardson of the youngest class, photographs of George R. Howe and George L. Noyes who aids Mr. Howe in the superintendence of the movements. A very interesting picture is the nest of the Wilson thrush with three eggs.

Tangled Wires—Nervousness.

The delicate nerves of the body are nature's telegraphic wires. You know what happens if wires are crossed and tangled. Disordered nerves cause nervousness, irritability, loss of sleep and finally nervous prostration.

Dr. Greene's Nervura
The World's Greatest Tonic

revitalizes the nerves and restores sound sleep and perfect health. Mrs. Elizabeth White, of Black Rock, Conn., says:

"I was troubled a long time with my nerves, and could not sleep. I had nervous prostration, and tried many things, but they did not help me. I thought I had heart trouble, for I suffered with pains in my left side and could not lie down. Nervura cured me. I could not sleep, and sent 'and got a bottle. I had not taken it long before I began to sleep and my nerves became stronger. I kept getting better."

"I took six bottles, and then I was well. I cannot tell how much it has done for me. I recommend it to everyone."

All druggists recommend and sell Dr. Greene's Nervura. For medical advice free, write Dr. Greene, 34 Temple Place, Boston.

Northern Cumberland Fair At South Harrison.

The 14th annual cattle show and fair of the Northern Cumberland Agricultural Society was held on the grounds of the Society at South Harrison on Oct. 14 and 15, having been put forward one day on account of bad weather. A brief story of the first day appeared in last week's ADVERTISER.

The second day was an ideal autumn day, clear, bright and pleasant, with the temperature just right for comfort, a day on which it was a pleasure to be out of doors. Although many living at a distance supposed that the fair had closed on the previous day, the attendance was large, being considerably in advance of that of the previous day. We understand that the total sale of tickets for the two days was about eleven hundred, which was quite satisfactory.

The cattle and other stock remained on the grounds through both days, but in the hall very many articles had been added to the show, and it was really a very fine exhibition. Although many of the contributors to previous fairs were obliged to be absent on account of pressing business, others had taken their places and the hall was well filled, there being very nearly as much as could be exhibited to advantage.

Casco Grange had a large and fine exhibit filling nearly one-third of the hall, and also covering nearly the whole of the wall on the westerly side and half of the northerly end. This is a young but very wide-awake Grange, and when the members start in to do a thing they are bound to do it well.

The committee of arrangements consisted of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hanscom, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hamlin, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jilison, Mrs. S. O. Hancock, Alice Curtis and Iva Spiller, and the result shows that their work was well and creditably done.

The wall was covered with beautiful quilts, rugs, cushions, etc., with decorations of tastefully draped bunting, with occasional pictures with special decorations around them. The table on the west side of the hall was largely filled with fancy articles contributed by the ladies, with several feet on the further end occupied with an excellent display of apples. Another table, running nearly the whole length of the body of the hall, was filled with extra large specimens of the vegetables grown by Casco Grangers, together with quite a collection of curiosities and antique articles and also several fine samples of butter shown by W. W. Hamlin and others.

The Grange exhibited a silk and woolen quilt made by the members and offered for sale. Many beautiful quilts, some containing an immense amount of work, were shown by Iva Spiller, Mrs. M. C. Kemp, Alice Curtis, Mrs. G. H. Hanscom and Mrs. E. B. Jilison, and each one was well worthy of special mention, if space permitted.

Sofa pillows were exhibited by Iva Spiller, Alice Curtis, Forrest Edwards, Mrs. Grace Gay, Mrs. Mary Young, Mrs. Hattie Moores and several others whose names could not be obtained. Mrs. R. E. Gay showed a silk shawl and a set of lamp mats; Mrs. G. T. Cook a very attractive paper jardiniere; Alice Curtis, Mrs. George Dingley, Mrs. G. T. Cook, Mrs. M. T. Kemp, dollies; Mrs. Nancy Jilison, a fine bureau scarf; Mrs. M. C. Kemp and Mrs. Bertha Hancock, toilet cushions; Mrs. R. E. Gay, a head-rest and a display of fancy articles; and W. W. Hamlin and G. H. Hanscom had six very fine oil paintings.

In the line of curiosities W. W. Hamlin showed a Japanese parasol and shoe, and others whose names could not be obtained showed ancient pistols, swords and other "weapons of warfare," including a so called trout spear which looked to be much better fitted for spearing whales.

G. H. Hanscom, E. Lombard, Forrest Edwards and W. W. Hamlin were the largest exhibitors of vegetables, and a new and curious vegetable shown by the latter was called a "Chinese cabbage," which seemed to be adapted to use in various ways and had no taste of the common cabbage.

The exhibit of apples was not large but the samples shown were excellent. Forrest Edwards, W. W. Hamlin, G. H. Hanscom and Jesse Holden were the chief contributors.

A very pretty feature of the exhibit was the arrangement of jellies, preserves, etc., in the windows, arranged in such a way that light shining through the jars produced a fine effect.

The butter shown was all made from cream separated by the U. S. Separator, and the butter most certainly showed that the separator had done its work well, and that those who did the separating of the work had done it equally as well.

Too much praise cannot be given the exhibition made by this Grange, and if nothing else had been in the hall the show would have been as good as that seen at some more pretentious exhibitions.

Passing out of the Grange exhibit we find a very fine showing of furniture occupying the whole of the raised platform at the south end of the hall, exhibited by O. S. Whitney, and consisting of several styles of Morris chairs, combined Morris chair and platform rocker, rockers of various styles, camp and lawn chairs, etc. These goods were made at Mr. Whitney's factory in Harrison, and most excellent articles and were offered for sale at very low prices.

J. A. Chadbourne and family of North Bridgton had a small table all to themselves on which was a fine display of different varieties of domestic cheeses and also every known specimen of bread and cake, the latter being the work of Mr. C. S. daughter Ruth.

Two tables running lengthwise of the hall were well filled with a fine display of household and fancy articles shown by Mrs. Geo. H. Cummings, Mrs. Mary Hicks, Mrs. Geo. F. Whitney, Jr., Mrs. D. H. Ward, Mrs. Clara Spedden, Mrs. Q. M. Chute, Mrs. C. D. Batchelder, Mrs.

J. W. Foster, Mrs. Henry Jilison and others, consisting of a dozen or more fine sofa pillows, dolls, toy clothes, fancy aprons, dollies, pillow shams, pillow cases, table scarfs, samples of lace work, slippers, afghans, handkerchiefs, ladies' collars, center-pieces, commodes, sets, fancy mats, headrests, etc.

Many elegant quilts were displayed on lines running through the center of the hall and were shown by Mrs. Callista B. Pitts, Mrs. Geo. F. Whitney, Mrs. D. H. Chute, Mrs. Clara Spedden, Mrs. Q. M. Chute, Mrs. C. D. Batchelder, Mrs. J. W. Foster, Mrs. Henry Jilison and many others whose names were not obtained.

A notable feature of the hall exhibit was the exhibition made by the Paugus Tribe of Red Men, Bridgton, which was arranged by Irving W. Barker and was in his charge. It consisted of a wigwam of evergreen boughs in which was shown many articles of curiosity and Indian relics, the whole being well arranged and each article worthy of special mention.

Henry Jilison also showed some ugly looking bear's teeth and some curious specimens of what was supposed to be species of coral.

The show of stock was quite extensive, there being about 35 pair of oxen and steers and some 70 head of cows, calves, heifers, and bulls. Geo. P. Carsley of Harrison and Ernest L. Pike of Waterford showed herds of cattle, the latter having a herd of registered Holsteins.

W. F. Rogers, Geo. P. Carsley, James Ernest L. Pike, Lakin Bros., and others showed cows, heifers, etc., and oxen were exhibited by Lakin Bros., E. L. Pike, C. K. Bean, R. K. Morrill, A. W. Weston, S. O. Culley and Geo. P. Carsley.

The trials of draft oxen and horses occupied quite a portion of both days and was the center of attraction for a large part of the crowd. The results will be given in the report of the secretary in regard to the names of no appearing on the articles on exhibition. Where an exhibitor is run in that way it is impossible for a reporter to prepare a full report without being to much extra trouble and sometimes it is impossible to get access to the books of the secretary.

Such a show is very unsatisfactory to those who visit it and the supposed security against unjust reward is very largely imaginary.

We were mistaken in our report last week when we said J. C. Maxwell had a hand in serving the dinner. The reporter seeing him at the dining room door inquired that he did, hence the error. The dinner was gotten up by the wives of the members of the society assisted by John Edgerly of the Crystal Lake House, Harrison.

BUCKFIELD.
Seeking New Pastors.
The churches are in sore trouble. Ministers are scarce. Rev. Mr. Abernethy of the Methodist with his family left the 13th for a professorship at Nashville, Tenn., and Rev. B. F. Turner of the Baptist goes to Rumford Falls Nov. 1. And now comes a refitting of men to smaller salaries.

John Gerrish has been ill. Guy Gardner is sick with neuralgia and sores in his head. Lizzie Withington returned from the hospital greatly improved.

Alfred Cole is still unable to attend to his duties at the postoffice. Rev. Mr. Withington has taken the rent vacated by Mrs. Emily Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rawson joined the excursion to Boston on Monday. Aurelia Bridgman, familiarly known as Aunt Bill, is very poorly. She is 89 years of age.

Mrs. R. C. Bradford of Portland has recently visited her mother, Mrs. Wm. P. Bridgman.

Will Allen and G. W. Tilton got two ducks and a partridge recently at Northeast pond.

William Record is in very poor health. Being near his eightieth milestone his recuperation is slow.

A. A. Farrar is closing up his business preparatory to spending the winter with his sons in Brockton, Mass.

Dr. Ulrich and wife, after a long tarry with Mrs. Ulrich's parents, left Thursday for their home in Philadelphia.

John N. Irish has been very lame from his housekeeper, has been ill. Both are convalescing.

Harry Holmes and Ethel Moore, daughter of station agent John Moore, were married at the bride's home Saturday evening by Rev. B. F. Turner.

Chas. Whitten of Augusta, combining business and pleasure visited his mother last week and with Ike Shaw and his pointer bagged 29 woodcock and one partridge.

R. H. Morrill's feed mill collapsed a few days ago letting about 45 tons of oats and corn from the loft down to the earth, spewing the same out both sides into mud and mire.

On Sunday after the powerful rain of the previous night, the roads in some places were creased by angle worms that had trailed their bodies into the earth, did they come from, up or down?

We are in the swim. We have a strike. 12 women laborers at the corn shop who on finding they were to have but 75 cents a day struck for $1. They were organized with a spokeswoman. One out all out, no vacillating. All return, or none.

WEST BETHEL.
Mrs. W. H. Merrow is failing. Allison Brown killed a nice deer recently. Ernest Rollins is working for Henry Merrill.

Mabel Scribner went to Bethel, last Monday. A. J. Haskell has commenced to make cider at his mill at Bethel.

Edgar P. Farwell is at work on the railroad for Herbert Mason. H. C. Barker, licensed auctioneer, terms moderate, Bethel, Me.

T. G. Lary, 1st selectman of Gilead, was in this village, last Tuesday. George Laxton, who has been quite sick is now better and out again.

W. W. Goodridge and wife of Gorham, N. H., were in this village last Monday. Mrs. Herbert Lord, who has been visiting relatives in Waterford, has returned home.

E. R. Briggs has a nice pig, which he intends keeping until about Christmas before killing it.

George W. Merrow, station agent at North Yarmouth, was here last Sunday to see his mother.

Mrs. Roy Grover, who has been with her parents a few weeks on account of poor health, is improving.

A. J. Haskell went to Norway, last Sunday, and brought home his family, who have been there on a visit a few days.

Bessie Andrews of Bethel, who is teaching our village school, received a visit in her school by her mother, last Friday.

Mrs. Bertha Sumner and infant daughter from the north side of the river were at E. J. Bell's last Sunday. The baby is nice looking of its age.

M. M. Mason and W. D. Mills are at work for a few days, building a new piazza in the place of the old one, which was recently taken down.

Mrs. Herbert Mason is getting quite smart and able to go out of doors and look around, which must be a comfort to her being confined so long.

We recently saw Lloyd Luxton driving a load of lumber, hauling lumber to the station to load on the cars, which looked pretty smart for a boy of his age.

Maud Orelly has gathered and assorted forty-five bushels of apples, putting the best into bags and the small ones in a pile, carrying them quite a distance to the station, where she is waiting for the train to take them to the city.

Your correspondent and wife and son were recently invited by Mary M. Bell to her home, where we had a very pleasant time listening to music and speeches from her graphophone, which was fine. Some of the pieces were comical and caused considerable laughter.

SUMNER.
Annual Hunting Trip.
Merica Benson of Hartford has been the guest of Dr. F. Dyer for the past few days, enjoying his annual hunting trip with the Massachusetts boys. We have not heard of any deer being captured as yet.

Mrs. James Gammon is poorly. Harry Bonney has purchased a cow of G. B. Foster.

Thomas Foster has hired out a month to work for J. E. Morrill.

William Loude of Rockland, Mass., is boarding at George Dyer's.

C. B. Tuttle is building a cream-house for S. F. Stetson of East Sumner.

George Irish has been visiting her uncle, Frank Buck of South Paris.

H. W. Davenport of Barrett is doing the thrashing in this place this fall.

G. B. Hersey of Auburn went through this place last week with a nice flock of lambs.
